SOUTHWEST MISSOURI

Well Represented at the St. Louis Exposition This Year.

Mr. J. K. Gwynn, the well known secretary of the Southwestern Immigration society is at the front in great shape at the St. Louis exposition this year. The Globe Democrat says: "The Southwestern Missouri Immigration Society, which has made itself famous by previous displays, is giving quite an elaborate exhibition this year, occupying a space of 100 feet front in the north gallery. Mr. J. K. Gwynn, secretary of the society, is in charge, and has a rustic office fitted up in the center of the display. It is constructed of four upright posts—rough-hewn poles of white and black oak from Morgan county—on which is an octagon-shaped roof of sheaves of rye. The posts are embellished with bunches of tobacco, wheat and corn, and festoons of indigenous grasses. This pioneer structure, however, is furnished in the most luxurious style of modern civilization. It contains a fine desk, richly upholstered sofa and costly rugs of India. The exhibit is not yet complete, the fruits not being due until next week. The first members in are the St. Clair county men who furnish some magnificent specimens of corn, oats and millet. Morgan county honors itself with corn, wheat and oats, and also samples of coal taken out of a vein which is 70 feet in thickness. Henry county sends a stalk of corn 16½ feet long. There are zinc, lead, coal and iron, and also crystallized sulphate of baryta, commonly called "tiff". The pottery ware from Clinton, Mo., and the new building brick are creditable."

A New Railroad.

A charter was filed in the office of the secretary of the state of Kansas Friday for a railroad to run from St. Louis to the Rio Grande via Guthrie, Oklahoma, with a fork to run to Kansas City. The St. Louis or main line will run through Franklin, Gasconade, Marion, Osage, Clay, Morgan, Benton, Monitau, Pettis, Henry, St. Clair, Benton, Vernon and Bates counties in this state. The directors are all Kansas and Oklahoma citizens. The capital stock is to be ten millions. The new road will be known as the St. Louis, Kansas City & Southwestern and the principal offices will be at Kansas City, Guthrie and St. Louis.

The effect of using Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup is unlike all medicines containing opiates or poisons, it being entirely free from them. It cures rheumatism by purifying the blood. W. E. Bard, druggist.

THE STRIKE OVER.

The Dock Companies and The Strikers at Last Come to Terms

And the Hundred Thousand Laborers Will go Back To Work Monday.

London, Sept. 7.—The dock companies have agreed to the demands of the strikers, but the rates of wages to be paid are to continue as at present and the advance rates is not to go into effect until January. It is made a condition of the arrangement that all strikers shall resume work on Monday. Burns and Tillet have signified their acceptance of the companies' terms.

Items of Interest Picked Up by "Bazoo" Detectives—Local Spikes.

STOCK PASSES.

A number of the principal Western railways, have undertaken to stop the wholesale abuse of stock passes, which has become quite burdensome. Some of the shippers have split up their shipments into as many small lots as the road will stand, for the purpose of getting the passes which are issued for the man who is supposed to go with the shipment as attendant. They have reduced the matter to a science and calculated the money derived from this sale of the passes as a legitimate perquisite. The railways are devising rules which will reduce the number of attendants with stock shipments, and make the passes good only in the hands of the bona fide shipper or attendant. Some of the cattle shippers kick long and hard for a return to the "old way" but the new has apparently come to stay.

The manner in which passages were secured for cheap rate hunters was quite unique. A number of Union avenue scalpers at Kansas City display signs announcing cheap rates to St. Louis and Chicago, and when a customer entered a price—usually $5 to Chicago—was named. The customer asked when the train would leave and the broker suggested an hour—6 or 7 o'clock in the evening. The $5 was paid over and in return the buyer received a receipt for the amount, "good for one fare to Chicago," and was told to come back about 4 o'clock in the afternoon. When he returned he usually found the office full of persons on a like mission and in company with the broker, with his pockets full of five dollar bills, the party proceeded to the stock yards. There, openly and in broad daylight, the broker turned over the money to the waiting shipper, retaining a dollar on each man brought as a customer. The shipper secured the names of his "attendants," had them entered on the bills and so the deal was consummated. On one occasion thirty teamsters were taken to the yards and sent east on the $5 rate, and some evenings found more travelers in the yards than there were accommodations for on the stock trains. A peculiar feature of the business was the appearance at the yards of many good and well to do citizens, grips in hand, looking for a cheap rate.

THE KANSAS CITY & PACIFIC EXTENSION

The officials of the Kansas City & Pacific divisions of the M. K. & T., are arranging to extend the line south from Coffeyville through the Indian Territory. Congress granted the Kansas City & Pacific company the right of way through the Indian Territory two years ago from Coffeyville across Oklahoma to the Texas Panhandle. The railroad is required to pay to the tribes owning the lands an annual rental of $50 per mile as long as the road occupies the ground or until the lands are divided and the company can purchase the right of way from the owners. This rental is regarded as cheaper than to own the land and the right of way is considered to be very valuable. Of course if the road is extended the "Katy" will operate it and the question of its building depends on whether that company can use it profitably.

SPICES.

—Receiver Eddy of the M. K. & T. is at Leavenworth spending Sunday with his family.

—A colored M. K. & T. section laborer was run over by the cars and killed at Parker on the Kansas City & Pacific division yesterday.

—Mr. Cliff L. Jackson, the general attorney for the M. K. & T. for the Indian Territory, came up last evening to see his best girl and spend Sunday.

—J. S. Young has returned from the M. K. & T. hospital at Sedalia, where he has been for several months undergoing treatment of injuries received while at his work in the shops here.

—W. A. Bailey, who had one of his legs badly crushed by being run over by a coal car at the M. K. & T. boiler shop the first of the week is getting along better than expected and the chances are good for recovery without the amputation of the leg.

—The directors of the Atchison at their meeting Friday authorized a settlement of note pending claim on account of the death of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Hart and their son Robert on a basis of $5000 for each person. All three were killed in an accident at Lorenzo, Ill., last spring.

—Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup cures rheumatism by striking at the seat of the disease and restoring the kidneys and liver to healthy action. If taken a sufficient time to thoroughly eradicate such poison, it never fails. W. E. Bard, druggist.

NAGLE'S STORY.

He Tell's Why He Shot and Killed Judge Terry.

San Francisco, Cal., Sept. 7.—Deputy Marshal Nagle was examined in the federal court yesterday, and related the details of the tragedy in the Lathrop dining room last month. He said that when Judge Terry approached Justice Field he had no idea he was going to make an attack, but before he could interfere, Terry slapped the justice in the face with his right hand, and repeated the blow with his left hand, striking the justice a second time on the back of the head. Nagle continued:

"I was on my feet in an instant, and throwing out my right hand to keep Terry off, shouted, 'Stop that, I am a United States officer.' Terry then directed his attention to me. He had his right arm in position, as if about to give another blow, and as he turned his glance upon me he looked like an infuriated beast. His clinch-fist immediately sought his bosom. Believing my life was in danger, I immediately drew my pistol with my left hand, and catching it with my right, fired two shots in quick succession, and Terry fell to the floor. I believe Terry would have cut me to pieces, and perhaps Justice Field, if I had not acted promptly. He looked like a maddened giant. I knew he had always carried a knife, and I believed he had one on him then. I knew him to be a giant in strength, and proposed to take no chances with him. For that reason I held my pistol in both hands so that he could not take it away from me. After the shooting was over and I had got Justice Field on the train again, I told the conductor to look out for Mrs. Terry, for I did not like to injure a woman, but would surely protect Justice Field."

Nagle's examination concluded the testimony, and the case was continued until next Wednesday, when the question of the jurisdiction of the federal court will be argued.

A LUNATIC'S DEED.

A New Jersey Madman Shoots His Brother and Commits Suicide.

New York, Sept. 6.—In one of the prettiest houses on Humboldt street, Union Hill, N. J., a murder and suicide occurred last night. A few months ago Schaepler, a young man of about 30 years, was awarded a contract by the Union Hill city council for the making of a large sewer in the town. He gave bonds and went to work. Finding that he could not fulfill his contract he fled the town, leaving many obligations behind him. His relatives, who are all well to do, paid his debts. His family lost track of him until three weeks ago, when Jacob, his elder brother, one of the proprietors of the Weehaken Granite works, was written to from a Philadelphia lunatic asylum, informing him that his brother John was an inmate, and was harmless enough to be at large, provided he was watched for "dangerous spells."

Jake hurried to Philadelphia and brought his brother to his home on Union Hill. The man behaved rationally until yesterday morning. The physician examined him and advised Jake to look after his brother as the latter was inclined to be mischievous. This induced Jake to mention that an asylum would be the proper place for the unfortunate John. In some manner the latter heard the remark, and he said he would never go back alive, and Jake would never send him. He then dressed himself in his best clothes and went out of the house, not returning until 8:30 o'clock last night. He stole quietly into the back parlor through the rear of the house, and hid behind the door which opens into the front room, holding a revolver in his left hand. As Jake approached the door the demented man put the pistol almost to the former's face and hissing between his teeth: "You'll not send me to a madhouse," fired. The bullet entered under the left eye and took an upward direction. The wounded man fell on his back, and in a few moments expired. A child who saw the shooting shrieked, and before any one could interfere the crazy man put the muzzle of the pistol to his left temple and instantly killed himself. Physicians were summoned, but life in both cases was extinct.

Mrs. M. A. Lineback's Statement.

RHEUMATIC SYRUP Co., Jackson, Mich. GENTS: For the past ten years I have been a sufferer from liver complaint and rheumatism. Finding no relief my condition became so wretched that I had no hope of recovery. Seeing Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup advertised I purchased six bottles and am now entirely cured both from Rheumatism and the liver trouble. Have also used Hibbard's Rheumatic Plasters with the best results. I can certify to the truth of the above statement. Mrs. Lineback was cured of rheumatism and liver trouble by the use of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Plasters. SOL KITTINGER, Druggist, Lisbon, Iowa.

The Salvation Army's New Tactics.

The Salvation Army paraded without drums and tamborines last night and created more notice and attention than they could have done with a hundred drums. The citizens who thronged the sidewalks had a good word for the army and admired their pluck and zeal as well as for their difference to public opinion as well as comfort by laying aside the drums.

Base Ball.

The base ball game between the Sedalia and the M. K. & T's, at Siche's Park yesterday afternoon was a very pretty game and quite close, the score standing 13 to 11 in favor of the latter.

—Acute and chronic rheumatism can be effectually and permanently cured by the use of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup and Plasters. W. E. Bard, druggist.

THE ANTWERP EXPLOSION.

Over One Hundred (and Sixty) Killed and Hundreds Injured.

Oil Tank After Oil Tank Exploding With Terrific Effect.

Antwerp, Sept. 7.—The dynamite explosion at Antwerp yesterday was the most appalling disaster that has visited Germany this year.

The latest estimate is that there are 300 dead and 1,000 injured. The city is still enveloped in a dense smoke and the explosions continue. A large number of houses in the vicinity of the cartridge factory have been destroyed, and several vessels of the docks have been burned. At the American docks all their ships have been saved, owing to the favorable direction of the wind.

Thus far the efforts of the firemen, assisted by the military and populace, to subdue the flames, have been unsuccessful and the fire is still raging. The docks and shipping have not been touched by the flames, the direction of the wind having been continually toward the town since the explosion. A judicial inquiry into the origin of the explosion has been ordered.

New York, Sept. 7.—The following cablegram was received at the Maritime exchange at 11 o'clock this morning:

Antwerp, Sept. 7.—The losses of property and life by the fire in the oil district, resulting from the explosion of dynamite yesterday, are appalling. The petroleum stores are all destroyed. The hydraulic pump and all buildings in the district have been destroyed. The latest reports show that in the oil districts alone 200 if not more, have either lost their lives or are so badly injured that they can not recover. Two hectares, or about five acres of land are now burning. Steam pumps are of no avail and firemen are helpless.

Antwerp, Sept. 7.—The most reliable estimates at noon to-day place the casualties resulting from the explosion at 160 killed, 250 seriously injured and 300 slightly injured. Firemen, assisted by the military, worked throughout the night, the parties at work being relieved hourly on account of the intense heat and the otherwise exhaustive character of the work. Many workers fainted and were conveyed to hospitals on stretchers, their parched and smoke-blackened faces presenting a sickening sight. The efforts of the firemen were directed to confining the fire to sheds and factories within the dry docks. The wind continues favorable to the safety of the docks and adjacent buildings.

Six million litres of petroleum are ablaze and the indications are that the fire will burn until Monday before exhausting itself. At the moment of the explosion and outbreak of the fire many workmen on the docks jumped into the Scheldt and were drowned. A number of sailors and custom officers were killed on board ships by flying bullets with which the sides and rigging of the vessels were riddled. It is estimated that 2,000 tons of cartridges exploded. The report of the explosion was heard thirty miles and the volume of smoke arising exceeded that of any of Europe's greatest battles. Heads, legs, arms and other fragments of human bodies were found half a mile distant from the scene of the explosion. One hundred and thirty whole corpses were taken to the morgue, and the charred heaps of human flesh and bones, representing an unknown quantity of humanity, are also piled in dead houses.

Youthful Burglars.

Charles Lester age 9, Oscar Brenner age 10 and Dallas Brenner age 10, were arrested this morning on a charge of burglarizing the carpenter shop of Ben Burns and a stable belonging to George Alcorn in East Sedalia. It is charged that they took some tools from the former place and a pair of bridles from the stable intending to sell them. They were taken before Justice Halstead and their trials set for Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Baptist Sunday School Convention.

The Baptist Sunday school convention of Pettis county met at Georgetown Friday evening and will close this evening with a great mass meeting. Rev. J. B. Fuller, of this city, addressed the convention Friday night. Prof. J. M. Hunt, a noted revival singer, was present Friday night and entertained the convention with a number of stirring revival solos.

A Big Week for Halstead.

Justice Halstead is expecting this to be a happy week for him as three of his married daughters and seven grand children will meet at his house Tuesday evening to spend the week. Mrs. Alfred Alexander with her husband and children of Caldwell county, Mrs. J. J. Maggard and child of the Indian Territory and Mrs. S. D. Longman and baby of this city will constitute the force of visitors.

A Drunken Stranger.

A drunken tailor went into John Steen's tailor shop in the second story over Peter Kuhns' cigar store on Ohio street, yesterday afternoon and assaulted Steen. Constable Ramsey took the man into custody and took him before Justice Fisher. The prisoner refused to give up his name and being very drunk the Justice ordered him taken to jail until Monday. He is a stranger and nobody was able to identify him.

Marriage Licenses.

Recorder Landmann issued a matrimonial through ticket, with no return coupon, yesterday to Aug. Brenner and Miss Lena Kurtz both of Lake Creek township, Pettis county.

Obituary.

Mrs. Edward Imhauser died yesterday morning of cancerous affection of the throat, at the family residence, fifteen miles southeast of the city.
